

March 4, 1976

That's not what's being proposed by the advocates of this bill. It's a proposal to simply write general law that is consistent with the practices in surrounding states, but not tip the balance so that IRS pushes for enabling legislation which eliminates the use of IDA bonds for all states under any conditions.

I urge you to reject this amendment to the amendment. If you reject the amendment and you make your decision then on the passing or rejecting the bill as it's originally proposed.... But let's quit wasting time on these ridiculous amendments.
